

Lab Safety Coordinators serve many functions. Which roles do you feel work well or don't work well?

Works well    Yes                      No

1. Communicating new information to the department
2. Being a department representative
3. Being a source of information for inquiries
4. Being the eyes and ears of EH&S in your department
5. Being a sounding board for EH&S policy

When presented with new information at a Lab Safety Coordinators meeting, how many faculty, staff, and students do you inform?

1. Faculty
2. Staff
3. Students

How do you inform them? Email? Verbally? Department meeting? One at a time?

How confident are you that you can speak for your department as their representative on environmental health & safety practices or relaying department policies?

Confident _____
Somewhat confident _____
Not confident at all _____

How many people in your department know that you are the departmental lab safety coordinator?

Faculty            _____
Staff                _____
Students           _____

Over the past year how many people have come to you with an inquiry about lab safety policies and practices?

Over the past year, how many times have you directed inquiries from your department to EH&S?

Over the past year, how many times have you contacted EH&S about a question or problem in your own lab?

---

+ Δ

What do you feel is working well with the lab safety coordinators program?

What would you change about the lab safety coordinators program?

What is good about the lab safety coordinators meetings?

What would you change about the lab safety coordinators meetings?